DAVID McBRIDE, of the Town of Beloit.

J. W. STOREY, of the City of Janesville.

Troops for Rosecrans.

There is an important movement of troops towards Chattanooga. Two corps from the Army of the Potomac, the 11th and 12th, commanded by Howard and Slocum, passed over the Baltimore and Ohio railroad last week, and arrived at Indianapolis on the 29th. They are probably at Nashville this. The 3d army corps is also expected to leave the Rappahannock for the same destination. Aside from the Potomac troops boats on the Mississippi are all pressed into the service to convey soldiers from below.

The rebels are also said to be concentrating their forces at Chattanooga. It is believed that the bulk of Lee's army in Virginia has been sent to Georgia, and that they are gathering their scattered forces from North and South Carolina, West Virginia, and wherever else they can be found, preparatory to a last desperate effort to save the confederacy from the ruin which confronts it. There is a prospect that the great battle which is to decide the contest will be fought near Chattanooga within a few weeks. We have confidence that Rosecrans will whip them, if he has an even chance.

Within the last month a large number of boats have been burned, or otherwise destroyed on the Mississippi river. So frequent have these "accidents" occurred that suspicion was aroused that they were the work of some secret foe. It has just been discovered that a plot existed to burn all the steamboats on the Mississippi river which would be of use to the government.

Don't think this is the work of the K. G. C.

This society exists in all the loyal states, as well as at the south. Its object is to aid the rebels in whatever manner possible.

They communicate secretly and have their signs by which they know each other.

There is no crime which these villains will not commit to help Jeff. Davis overthrow the United States government and establish a slave aristocracy over the whole country. It would be well for loyal people everywhere to be on their guard and watch them. They assume different characters according to the localities where they operate. Whatever tends to obstruct the government in suppressing the rebellion may be considered the effect of their labors, either directly or indirectly, be it destroying steamboats, aiding deserters, obstructing the draft, or producing dissensions among the people.

THE ST. JOSEPH DAILY TRIBUNE.—We have received the first number of a daily paper, published at St. Joseph, Mo., by D.

K. Abel, formerly of this city. It is neat in its mechanical appearance, and is an outspoken advocate of radical measures for the suppression of the rebellion, and cleansing slavery out of Missouri by immediate emancipation. The Tribune, its principles and its proprietor, have our warmest wishes for complete success. There is now a grand opportunity for the true men of Missouri to place that great state upon a career of unexampled prosperity.

Thousands of the hardy and intelligent sons of the northwest are waiting to see the rebels and slavery put down, when they will emigrate to Missouri, and make it, what nature designed, the greatest of the states of the Mississippi valley. The live, radical, slavery-bating, rebel-detesting newspapers of the stamp of the Tribune, are the pioneers and leaders in this great work—the founders of the mighty free empire that is come—and they deserve the earnest sympathy and cordial support of all who wish the accomplishment of this grand and noble object.

G. H. Mingley, paymaster on the Canada Great Western railroad, has absconded

The Election in Ohio.

The copperheads are getting desperate in Ohio. They see the coming doom of their "martyr," and hence their predictions of success are accompanied by the suggestion of a contemplated fraud on the part of their opponents. They are also endeavoring to excite the people by asserting that

Gen. Schenck is about to take military possession of the polls and drive back "conservative voters." In case any of them are killed they are going to take "terrible vengeance on the abolitionists." This is all the purest moonshine. Gen. Schenck does not command in Ohio, and there will not be the slightest interference with the dupe who intend to vote for Vallandigham.—

These falsehoods are set afloat to excite people in other states who do not understand the situation in Ohio, and to prepare the public mind for the defeat which awaits Vallandigham.

Information from that state from persons who have recently passed through the interior leads us to expect the election of Brough by a large majority.

Palmer, the Patriot!

Fortunately for the people, however an-fortunate for himself, Henry L. Palmer, the copperhead candidate for governor, is on an enduring record. He was a member of the legislature in 1861, and not only voted against but violently opposed the bill allowing the soldiers who are fighting for the cause of the country in the army the privilege of voting for the rulers at home who are to supply them with the means of successfully prosecuting their armed warfare.

He opposed a bill to borrow money from the school fund to pay the arrearages of state relief to the suffering families of the men in the army. But a still worse record stares him in the face. He dodged the vote on a resolution pledging the President, as the representative and executive of the government, the continued co-operation of the legislature and of the state in the measures he should deem proper to suppress the rebellion. Not fully prepared at that time to assume the position of hostility to the measures of the government he has since taken, but unwilling to give the encouragement such a resolution would have afforded, he dodged behind a screen in the assembly chamber, and refused to answer when his name was called. Such is the record of the man whom his party friends would like to make the people believe is a straightforward, open-handed supporter of the government and its earnest friends.

JENNISON, THE JAYHAWKER.—The St.

Louis Democrat has the following sketch of the notorious jayhawker:

Colonel C. R. Jennison was born in Jef-erson county, New York, in 1824, and is not yet thirty-nine years old. He is a small, sparely made man, possessing immense muscular power, nervous temperament; light blue eyes which are never at rest, and a broad forehead with the hair combed behind his ears in a ministerial style. In personal appearance he is boyish, and wears it not for the whiskers on his chin would be taken for a youth of seventeen.

Jennison formerly lived in Monroe, Green county, and made his home in this city for some time.

THE HOSTAGES.—It is now announced that the rebels have concluded not to hang Captains Sawyer and Flynn, and have put them on the same footing as other prisoners of war. Gen. Lee and Capt. Winder therefore put on the same footing by the government. The Richmond papers say also that in consequence of the solicitations of Morgan's men, who dislike the Ohio penitentiary, Col. Straight's officers, who were given up to the Georgia state authorities, have been placed among the Union prisoners of war.

STENTON TO BE SHOT.—Private Dennis

McCarthy, company B, 23d Illinois volunteers, having been convicted of a deadly assault upon a fellow soldier and violently assailing his sergeant, has been sentenced to be shot, and his sentence has been approved by the president.

PENNSYLVANIA AND OHIO.—The New York Commercial Advertiser says: "We have the assurance from well informed sources in Pennsylvania, that Gov. Curtin will receive from fifteen to twenty thousand majority in the coming election. The state is being canvassed with great thoroughness."

The following is an extract from a prirate letter to the Tribune: "Possess your souls in abundant peace as to the result in Ohio. She follows California and Maine.

Our people are thoroughly aroused, and our speakers fall at work. Our meetings of from 4,000 to 12,000 occur every day in the week, and some days see three or four such gatherings—and we have just commenced."

The Russian naval officers had a public reception in New York Thursday. They were escorted to the City Hall by fifteen regiments, and the spectators along the route numbered, it is estimated, at least 100,000.

Mr. E. C. Sacket, of Beardstown, Illinois, has made a novel contribution to the Soldiers' Aid Society of that village. He has handed over all the fruit of his apple orchard, five acres in extent, to the ladies of the society, who have already commenced gathering, piling and drying the fruit.

Nothing is more welcome to the men in the field than dried fruit, and persons who have orchards would do well to imitate the example of this Illinois patriot.

A TANKER.—A drafted man in Auburn, N. Y., hired a substitute at Syracuse.

At the quartermaster's office the substitute was recognized by a soldier of the 15th cavalry as a deserter from that regiment.

This made a stir, during which a discharged soldier from the 3d artillery, came up and identified the 15th cavalry man, a deserter from the 3d artillery. The result of the whole affair may be summed up thus:

The 3d artillery gain a man, the 15th cavalry loses a man, and a man, the substitute deserter loses his $250, the man who hired him will get back his money and be obliged to hunt up another substitute, pay the $300 or go himself.

Last Night's Report.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 1.

Preparations are being made here for a large number of soldiers, wounded in the late battle, who are expected here in a few days.

The trial of Richard Brannan, on the charge of treason, will take place to-morrow before the United States court.

MEADERS, 23th, via Cairo, Sept. 30.

Special to Chicago Tribune.—There is quite an influx of Uncle Sam's boys within the past few days, and still they come.

Perhaps Memphis is soon to become the theatre of important events. Who can tell.

A cannon attached to Mansson's battery, 4th Ohio, accidentally exploded at the foot of Monroe street and the levee, this morning, wounding two privates, names not known.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 1.

Arrangements for the prompt communication between Chattanooga and Washington are now perfected. It is not supposed here in military circles that any serious impediments will interfere with the reinforc-
